About "Big Business"

Here Ligness isn't a business sin.

Many a large business serves the public much bet-ter than a small business could—because it is able to render service in direct proportion to its size.

Big business has given the American people the most efficient telephone service at the lowest rates in the world.

Big business has popularized the telephone in the United States until today there are more telephones used in this country than in all the other nations of the earth combined.

The Bell System is a large organisation, but it is made up of real flesh and blood folks who are anxious to serve you in a big, broad-minded, cour-
